

MES Family Update April 15, 2021

Good afternoon MES Families,

We hope that you've had a good week - which looks like it is ending with some unfriendly weather. We weren't happy to see a snowflake or two on the hourly weather report.

A few things for you this week:

Please take a few minutes to complete the yearly Family Survey. This year's survey has just four questions. The link to the Family Survey follows:
